NIEUWEGEIN – 12.01.2017

The BAUHAUS Dutch Open Youth 2017

The BAUHAUS Dutch Open Youth 2017 will take place on February 5th in the Bonte Wever Assen. The tournament starts at 10 am and will be organised in three different categories: Boys under 14 years old, Boys 14-17 years old and Girls (until 17 years old).

For the first time it is possible for boys under 14 years old to play in the Boys 14-17 category. They are free to choose, but can't play in both tournaments. Only the tournaments for the boys 14-17 and girls are WDF ranked. This new rule is introduced for boys under 14 who want to play for WDF points.

The BAUHAUS Dutch Open Youth is the only tournament with a category under 14, so these players are competing for WDF points all over the world. The organisation decided it would be fair if they can do the same in the BAUHAUS Dutch Open Darts Youth. The organisation is also happy to announce that the winner of the Boys under 14 category receives a Winmau World Masters 2017 ticket for the first time! As always the winners of the Boys 14-17 and the girls category will win a World Masters ticket as well.

Just like last year, only pre-registration is possible for all youth players until January 16th. Foreign players can pay their entree fee on the day.
